

THE THIRTIETH ANNUAL TERRITORIAL CONGRESS

3 Meetings IN THE Massey Hall

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 17; SUNDAY, OCT. 20, 3 and 7 p.m.
Conducted by
COMMISSIONER AND MRS. REES

WELCOME MEETING, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 17.

will be a CIVIC RECEPTION and an "OLD BOYS" REUNION in one. All the City Salvationists with their Bands and Banners, the 80 new Cadets, and the MAYOR WILL BE ON HAND TO WELCOME THE 500 DELEGATES from all over the Dominion and Newfoundland.

THE SUNDAY'S SPECIAL SERVICES

Will be three in number.

At 10:45 a.m. In the TEMPLE, the COMMISSIONER will conduct a SPECIAL HOLINESS CONVENTION.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE

In honour of The Army's victorious Dead will be held at 3 p.m., the great feature of which will be THE LIFE, WORK, AND THE DEATH AND BURIAL OF THE ARMY'S FOUNDER as depicted by

LANTERN PICTURE & CINEMATOGRAPH FILM

These pictures will comprise: 1. The Founder of The Salvation Army of various periods of his ministerial and Salvation Army career. 2. The General on his journeys. 3. The work of the General. 4. The General in death. This will show the General lying-in-state at Hadley Wood; lying-in-state in the Congress Hall. The coffin at various important places along the route from the International Headquarters, then an exceedingly interesting cinematograph picture showing the procession passing a given place. This will be followed by a magnificent still picture of the son conducting the funeral service at the graveside. The last picture of all, will show the two graves of the late General and Mrs. Booth in Abney Park Cemetery. There will be striking decorative symbolism, and electric lighting effects. This will without doubt be the most striking and impressive memorial service ever held in the Massey Hall.

THE LAST PUBLIC MEETING OF THE CONGRESS

SUNDAY NIGHT.

Will be a powerful and dramatic representation of the Master's last words to His disciples—"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

COL. BULLARD, late of Japan, with a number of Officers in Japanese costume, will show How the Gospel is preached in Japan

This will be a remarkable presentation of Japanese customs and Salvation Army methods. Then Staff-Captain and Mrs. Grose, with a number of comrades, and the valuable assistance of

COLONEL MAPP, will show how The Army is engaged in

PREACHING THE GOSPEL TO THE HINDOOS

In addition to the foregoing, a matter of great interest to the Salvationists of Toronto will be

The Farewell of Colonel and Mrs. Mapp.

COUNCILS & OTHER MEETINGS

Thursday, Oct. 17th. Officers' Council in the Temple all day—Local Officers included in the night session.

Thursday, Oct. 17, 7 p.m. General United Public Meeting. Particulars later.

Friday, Oct. 18th. Officers' Councils all day.

Friday, Oct. 18th, at 8 p.m. Riverdale Citadel, United Democracy with Special Features. Particulars later.

Saturday, Oct. 19th, 5 p.m. Lower Massey Hall. Bands—men Council.

Saturday, Oct. 19th, 8 p.m. Bond Street. Inter-agessional Church Meeting for Soldiers, Ex-Soldiers and Recruits. Admission by Ticket.

Sunday, Oct. 20th. 10:45 a.m.—Holiness Service in the Temple conducted by

Commissioner and Mrs. Rees, assisted by Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, and other Officers.

Special Officers will conduct Holiness Meetings at other places throughout the Sunday morning. Particulars later.

Monday, Oct. 21st. Final Officers' Councils in connection with the Farewell of Colonel and Mrs. Mapp.

10:45 a.m.—Holiness Services in

the Temple conducted by

Commissioner and Mrs. Rees, assisted by Colonel and Mrs. Mapp, and other Officers.

Special Officers will conduct

Holiness Meetings at other places throughout the Sunday morning. Particulars later.

PERSONALITIES

Stan-Captain Coombs, late of the Training College Staff, and who has been temporarily attached to the International Division for several weeks, has now been appointed to the position of Chancellor of the St. John's Division, under Major Taylor. The Stan-Captain is an old Officer and was a member of the International Division for many years. His new appointment will we feel sure give great pleasure to all his comrades. Success to you, Stan-Captain.

Stan-Captain Goodwin of Ottawa has been assigned to the Pacific Coast, and is expected to return to the Capital City next week. The Stan-Captain, it will be remembered, conducted a party of newcomers to Vancouver a few weeks ago.

Adjutant A. R. Headon accompanies Prof. S. G. G. G. to the Ottawa Jail every Saturday morning. During the last month eight meetings were held, and four persons definitely professed conversion.

Captain Mayd. Walter, late of

Captain Sydney Cox has been replaced as an Officer, and has been assigned to assist Major McLean in the Divisional Office at Winnipeg.

We deeply sympathize with Mrs. Adjutant Howell of Calgary, who has lost her father by the promise of the Army of the Cross of Riverdale.

Captain Mayd. Walter, late of

Captain Mayd. Walter, late

BAND CHAT.

The Stratford Band is making good progress. Three new companies have been formed, and, except for the bandmaster, is wearing a smile. But not all that is good alone, for not a few signs a little daughter arrived at this home. The Souther Band has been reorganized, in excellent results. Musical instruction, too, Stratford is doing. —J. A. R.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Toronto, have farewelled for the "College," Toronto. Mr. Taylor has been a member of the Band for about three years, and has been a good on the occasion of the visit of Colonel Taskin, the Y. P. Band was present with the Senior Band. He led, under command of Captain Taskin, a march and several pieces of music. They looked quite good in their new uniforms.

Correspondent W. G. V. has full blown own newspaper meeting on Sundays, and the Souther people are greatly interested.

The Stratford Band has recently added sixtuphones to its instrumentation, and under Bandmaster Mr. Gresham, the men are still improving.

The members of the Legion, Stratford, the last few weeks, has drawn large crowds to both meetings and indoor meetings (see our correspondent). On the occasion of "The General" memorial service the ranks of the Legion were filled with the Legionnaires and the band music created a tremendous impression.

Several changes have recently taken place in the Band, which the horn and cornet sections have been strengthened. The brass section has been well.

Bandmaster, Mr. Lewis, and Captain-Guard, Lillian Beercroft, were recently united in marriage.

Mr. Justice Colonel Chander, the bandmaster, wish the young couple every joy and God's rich blessing in their new home.

During band practice at the various Corps, Belshebo, Australia, a man, under the influence of drink, sought admission. The bandmaster, who was in charge, told him he must go home, and not to try again at once, and dealt with the man about spiritual affairs. After some little while the intruder made his way to the bandroom, where the band had prayer-meeting, and knelt down on his knees a few minutes.

Accompanied by Lieut.-Colonel Palmer, the South American Imperial Staff Band recently visited the Canadian Army Shelters in British Army.

The ordinary lodgings were composed of men speaking nearly every living language, whilst the least interested listeners were compelled to speak for the sake of the Colonels, and that the message of salvation was delivered in English, Spanish, and Hindustani.

Adjutant and Mrs. Coate and Their Daughter.

A recent issue we briefly announced that Mrs. Adj. Coate had been called to her reward. The following interesting particulars, concerning her life and death have since been received.

The Salvation Army opened fire in Oshawa on March 10, 1889. Captain very night the late Mrs. Coate, then Mrs. Harkness, got converted. She at once took her husband to Military Hall, in Nashville last year for a brief charge, later to Lexington, Ky., for the Christmas work, and then to Bristol, Tenn., where Adjutant Coale was stationed for several months. When her health broke they went to the south, and she remained in the tropics that she might be benefited, although the doctors there find her up. She had suffered from a complication of diseases, including internal cancer, which claim her life, while her family and relatives were sufficient to cause intense suffering and finally.

The Adjutant had recently gone to Bristol, Tenn., but although she was not improving. There she died, and called the Adjutant to take her home to Oshawa. Before this took place, however, a consultation of five leading physicians was held, and an operation decided upon. That the operation was not successful proved that her end was being finally claimed by the touch of human skill and aid.

From that day to this—a space of twenty-eight years—he has never touched a drop of liquor, nor any other drink.

Accompanied by these telegrams, Sister Robinson sent the call to service as an Officer, and entered the work on May 5th, 1888, going to her first Corps all alone, and many a communion throughout Ontario, and her first appointment, before her marriage, was Adjutant Coale (then Captain) was Cornwallis, Que. The wedding place at Oshawa, May 18th, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Coale, and Mrs. Coale, then had charge of America, Part One, Napanee, Genesee, Kempton, Tweed, hewa, and Major Wm. Andrews (the Divisional Officer of the Southern Province), accompanied her to the altar, and his daughter with the corpse, to that town. Lieut.-Colonel Turner, with Lieut.-Colonel Chandler, conducted the funeral service. The Oshawa Band, Soldiers, and some visiting Officers, who presented in force, and a most impressive service was held. Both Captain Turner and Colonel Chandler gave touching addresses, while those who knew Mrs. Coale, who was in her 50th year, intimately, paid glowing tributes to her work, and Christian character. In Napanee, as well as in Oshawa, she was known to thousands, and she had come to be recognized as one of the ablest and most consecrated workers in the Army. Although it was twenty-seven years since she left Oshawa to take up work as a Consecrated Soldier, her name was remembered and highly valued as a product of the Corps. References were made to her promotion to Heaven soon after that of her beloved General, and it was suggested that perhaps she was the last Officer from the ranks to be welcomed by The General to the Kingdom.

On Sunday, Sept. 8th, Lieut.-Colonel Turner conducted a memorial service at Oshawa. The Commissioner sent the bereaved comrades and an assurance of sympathy and an assurance of continued personal service. Major Wm. Andrews, and at the close of the meeting, and at the close of the meeting, the late Mrs. Coale, with hands raised, pledged themselves to be true to God, and to meet their loved one around the Throne.

The following is from a Stratford newspaper: The London Salvation Army Band was given a hearty welcome on the occasion of its visit. The men are two musicians, and their playing was much enjoyed by the audience. W. Coale said in the Lyceum on Sunday afternoon at the sacred festival, over which he presided, the local Corps has a Band that is deserving of much commendation and support, and Stratford greatly appreciates the splendid work done by the band, and in the park, from time to time. For a small organization, it would be pretty hard to beat. Mr. Coale also drew attention to the fact that The Salvation Army would derive still greater commendation if the general public could see for themselves the good work they are accomplishing in many ways even right here in Stratford.

Adjutant and Mrs. Brown and Captain Burry have farewelled from Canada. The Adjutant has been absent three years, and during that time has built a new Citadel and Day School. We have welcomed Captain and Mrs. Shand, and Captain and Mrs. Gossamer, who have come from England. The new commandant has been appointed, and her name is Adjutant Coale (then Captain) was Cornwallis, Que. The wedding place at Oshawa, May 18th, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Coale, and Mrs. Coale, then had charge of America, Part One, Napanee, Genesee, Kempton, Tweed, Major Barr and Adjutant Cornish were at St. John St., N.B., on a recent Sunday. Major Taylor, who also took part during the day, presented the Band with several new instruments and the new flag. There were six weeks for the week-end.

Re-Opening of Hamilton's Metropole
The Commissioner Conducts the Ceremony.

On Friday evening, September 20th, the Commissioner conducted the re-opening of the Hamilton Metropole, which for some time has been in the hands of the vandals and carpenters. A mixed company of Salvationists, a few of the Army's friends in Hamilton, and a number of visitors at the Metropole, gathered at the little meeting room, which had just been added to the building.

The soul-winner receives this power when he is sanctified, wholly in filth with the Spirit, and he need never fear it. But while the Holy Spirit abides with the believer, there yet seems to be need for frequent renewals of the power He bestows. And, thank God, He has made ample provision for this need. "Behold, they that wall upon the Lord shall live; they that wall upon me shall die." (Isaiah xxvi, 33.) They waited before the Lord, and their strength was renewed, power was reinforced from Heaven, their past victories were put into the shade, and "Great company" of the priests gathered to the Tabernacle.

2. Sometimes the need for this renewing of strength arises after great victories. For victory is usually secured as the result of great spiritual and mental activity. The prophet Elijah was filled with the Spirit, and became a bold and daring champion of his conversion. Hence it was that, when through him the violated law spoke out its thunders, it did seem as if we had in Elijah upon the mountain life the great essential of which was to seek first the Kingdom of God." As a doctor he saw life in all its stages, but fell into only safety was God.

The Commissioner introduced the Commissioner, who received a very hearty welcome. The Commissioner's first words were of congratulations to Ensign and Mrs. Habibk in upon the beautifully decorated and spotless condition of the Metropole, and the appropriate surroundings, and this being the carrying into effect of one of the Commissioner's own ideas in connection with the Social work. He impressed upon the men the fact that this was their home, and he wished them to be to the end of the world as they took interest in their improvement. The Commissioner then told a touching story at the South African veldt. He finally urged upon the men their need of God and His Salvation. A Canadian paper prints the following in connection with the opening:

"Local Officers in charge of The Salvation Army Metropole have every reason to congratulate themselves on the success of their re-opening of their old home. Undoubtedly it is a model of modesty and cleanliness, and stands as a credit to the management. Previous to the alterations just completed, there was no provision made for long-staying visitors, and the result was that they could find in the sleeping quarters, which were always crowded. Under the new conditions there has been provided to both the lower and upper floors, spacious reading rooms, while in the upper floor there are well-arranged wash rooms, and easy lounging quarters have been provided. In the first floor dormitory there are 24 beds, each of which is sparsely clean, and the surroundings are such as to make any man feel comfortable.

These beds are supplied at 15 cents per night to all worthy applicants. On the second floor single bed, and every effort is given to cleanliness. In the remodeling, sanitary conditions have been given special attention, and each sleeping apartment is so arranged as to have the best of modern ventilation. Ensign Habibk has conducted a meeting in the newly-added room, and twenty-five men were present. Each one manifested deep interest in all that took place, and when the Ensign reiterated the Commissioner's suggestion that the men interest themselves in making the institution bright and homelike, and in their dress, and contributed nearly four dollars towards buying an organ and some pictures for their meeting room.

THE WAR CRY.
RENEWINGS OF POWER
AN INSPIRING ARTICLE ON THE HOLY LIFE.
[By COLONEL BRENGLE.]

that ever afterwards he took "pleasure in afflictions," in "preaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake," glorying in them, since through them the power of Christ rested upon him, and in weakness he was made strong. Spiritual renewal upon physical energy and to "how much he may be afflicted with infirmities" there are mighty endowments of power for the soul-winner, if he intelligently uses them and persists in his faith seeks them.

3. There will be times of times and spiritual trials, such as Jesus suffered in the garden, as Elijah had when he felt that the prophets were slain, and he need never fear it. But while the Holy Spirit abides with the believer, there yet seems to be need for frequent renewals of the power He bestows. And, thank God, He has made ample provision for this need.

The soul-winner receives this power when he is sanctified, wholly in filth with the Spirit, and he need never fear it. But while the Holy Spirit abides with the believer, there yet seems to be need for frequent renewals of the power He bestows. And, thank God, He has made ample provision for this need.

4. Sometimes the need for this renewing of strength arises after great victories. For victory is usually secured as the result of great spiritual and mental activity. The prophet Elijah was filled with the Spirit, and became a bold and daring champion of his conversion. Hence it was that, when through him the violated law spoke out its thunders, it did seem as if we had in Elijah upon the mountain life the great essential of which was to seek first the Kingdom of God." As a doctor he saw life in all its stages, but fell into only safety was God.

The soul-winner receives this power when he is sanctified, wholly in filth with the Spirit, and he need never fear it. But while the Holy Spirit abides with the believer, there yet seems to be need for frequent renewals of the power He bestows. And, thank God, He has made ample provision for this need.

5. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

6. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

7. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

8. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

9. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

10. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

11. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

12. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

13. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

14. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

15. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

16. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

17. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

18. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

19. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

20. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

21. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

22. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

23. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

24. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

25. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

26. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

27. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

28. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

29. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

30. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

31. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

32. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

33. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

34. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

35. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

36. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

37. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

38. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

39. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

40. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

41. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

42. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

43. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

44. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

45. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

46. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

47. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

48. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

49. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

50. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

51. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

52. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

53. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

54. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

55. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

56. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

57. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

58. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

59. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

60. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

61. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

62. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

63. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

64. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

65. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My strength is made perfect in weakness." And, such was the uplift that Paul got at that time.

66. Again, there is sometimes need for renewals of power, especially in weakness and infirmities of the flesh. Paul must have received a great addition of power when, instead of removing his "thorn," God said to him, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for My

GAZETTE

THE COMMISSIONER

NOTES ON THE STAFF BANDSMEN IN COUNCIL AND CONDUCTS A MEMORIAL SERVICE AT THE CENTRAL PRISON.
THE PRISONERS MOURN THE LOSS OF THEIR CHAMPION.

Adj'tant Geo. Waller Peacock,
Staff-Captain.
Lieut Edward Honagan, to be Adjudant.
Ensign Jim Maisey, to be Adjudant.
Captain Sydney A. Church, to be Captain.
DAVID M. REES,
Commissioner.

THE WAR CRY

At the Canadian Headquarters

of the Salvation Army, and the position of Commissioner Howard in the position of Chief of the Staff are history-making lines in the Salvation Army, and the sentiment of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

loyalty to the cause,

to our Leaders, in

the full and lofty

spirit of salvation.

The Army are

now in our

and the sentiments

of our Commissioner in

the interview elsewhere

we feel sure, will be re-

ceived by the whole

Army with the

What Are the Corps Doing? This Page tells You

THE MEMORIAL MEETING IN WINNIPEG

Thousands Unable to Enter Hugs
Walker Theatre.

The magnificent Walker Theatre in Winnipeg was crowded for the memorial service for our late General. The service throughout was a splendid tribute from the people of the city. The life of the world's greatest man, Our General, was "caged" in her, about three hundred Salvationists the massed bands filling half the space and the Snugday Band the other half. The boys' band and the Sweethearts' band were present. Major Alexander Mapp, who was in charge of the meeting, and among the many prominent men present was Mayor Walker, who gave an eloquent address. After the Memorial of No. 1 Corp had given a address, and the audience's messages read from the "Loyal Guards," D. C. Cadham, Esq., and the Premier, Sir R. P. Roblin. This is how the ideal paper describes the procession to the Theatre:

"An impressive sight. Marching with stately tread to the strains of the 'Dead March in Saul' the Salvation Army made its way from the Citadel. Over two hundred people followed the procession. As it passed through the streets old people stopped to weep; innumerable bowed their heads in honor of the great leader who has passed away."

At the head of the procession were two standards bearing the colors of the Army. The Army's single files of women Salvationists followed immediately after. The No. 1 Army band, playing with uplifted drums, came next, and were followed by 100 men and women of the Army. A band of five children, the Officers of the Army, and the No. II Band ended the parade. On both sides of the street hundreds of men and women walked beside the marchers, the crowd of spectators, the crowd of passers-by, and some thousands were left in the streets, vainly trying to get inside.

Major McLean says in conclusion: "The memorial services throughout the country were most enthusiastic. In nearly every town and city, the mayor or instructed the public to place their flags at half-mast in honor of The General. I am pleased to say that from Winnipeg, the capital of this world, the Army has come." Many leading men and women, including military men, have written special articles to the papers in reference to "The Army's first and now glorified General."

Major Merritt, president of the Gatherings, has said: "The marks on Sign General's uniform were most touching. In nearly every town and city, the mayor or instructed the public to place their flags at half-mast in honor of The General. I am pleased to say that from Winnipeg, the capital of this world, the Army has come." Many leading men and women, including military men, have written special articles to the papers in reference to "The Army's first and now glorified General."

Candidate's Farewell for the Battle's Front

THE CORPS CELEBRATE HARVEST FESTIVAL, AND MAKE FLESH AND BLOOD OFFERINGS TO GOD
FOR THE YEAR'S BLESSINGS.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.

Charlottetown, part of the Island General Council on Sunday afternoon, a large audience drawn from all classes of the community assembled in Market Hall. Brigadier J. Green presided. His Honour Lieutenant Governor Rutgers delivered an address. A letter from His Worship Mayor Lyons was read on behalf of Charlottetown. Mr. W. L. Callan addressed the audience on behalf of the press of the Province, and letters from other editors Mr. W. H. Nash and Mr. D. F. E. Fletcher were also read. As a last minute addition, His Worship Mayor Lyons nine sons, knelt at the cross seeking pardon.

Harvest Festival Sunday was marked with four services in the mercantile Town Hall. Colonel H. C. Fletcher, in command all day, in his Holiness meeting the Colonel gave a forceful and appealing address in full surrender. The afternoon and night meeting were much enjoyed, and crowned with success. Frank

PHOSPHORUS RIDGETOWN.

This Corps has prospered under the leadership of Captain Treasurer and Lieut. Nutting, and many souls have been saved. The Officers are assisted by Major Major, Brigadier, Sister Noddy, and with the Officers they have succeeded in forming a fine little band of Soldiers, Recruits, and Converts.

Evvy Hancock led the week-end meetings. The Rev. Mr. Jackson, pastor, gave an instructive talk.

At the afternoon service the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, and the Rev. Mr. Jackson.

At night a good crowd attended the meeting conducted by Rev. Mr. Jackson. Mrs. Hargrave spoke very sweetly in the Holiness Meeting, and Brigadier gave an instructive talk.

At the afternoon service the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Jackson, and the Rev. Mr. Jackson.

At night a good crowd attended the meeting conducted by Rev. Mr. Jackson.

On Sunday night many of the soldiers went to New Aberdeen to hear Mrs. Hargrave lecture on the "Early Days of the Army."

BEHIND THE BARS.

Two very helpful meetings were conducted in the Central Prison and Mercot Reformatory, respectively. Sunday night a prison last, the soldiers had closed both institutions and the audience were given by Major Desks boy, Adj. Young and Candidate Violet Henderson assisted. In both meetings, the pastor singing very sweetly, Rev. Major's address, and the last, practical and no little pleasure was manifested as she spoke.

Adj. Edwards, of the Metropole, Toronto, conducted the meeting with the men from the Central Prison now working at the prison. The Adjutant reports a splendid time.

Captain H. Clayton assisted by Lieut. Holloway, conducted the memorial service at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The Adjutant Hall was secured for the occasion, and a large crowd attended. Prior to this service, a very impressive open-air service was conducted.

GOOD TIDINGS FROM EAST TORONTO

Lionel Ashby, of T. H. D., conducted the meetings at East Toronto on Sunday. One soul sought salvation. There was a record number of knee-deep, and all day long the soldiers had to move the audience. A concert of the previous Sunday followed by the blessing he had received during the week since giving himself to God. Good impressions are being left by the various meetings. Major A. Ward and the three men, Caledon-Sorrell, and in their meetings all day long, Capt. Edwards assisted at night. P. P.

Sunday last, at North Vancouver, was a great gathering in the Park. Lieutenant Walton has farewelled after a two-months' stay here. Captain Lillard and Lieut. Lansdale are holding on.—E. B.

MUSIC IN A VILLAGE

Visit of Owen Sound Band. The Owen Sound Band, with the Owen Sound Band, visited Warburton for last weekend. In the afternoon we played for a time on one of the main roads. At the very onset the hearts of the people seemed to be captivated. In the Town Hall the Band gave an excellent musical festival. There was a good audience. The Rev. Mr. Flag, of the Methodist Church, tendered a hearty welcome to the town and expressed his appreciation of our visit.

On Sunday morning we went to the Methodist Church, where the Officers and Band conducted the morning service. The pastor gave a short review of the service. The General, the playing and singing of the Band at this service was well received. The afternoon meeting was deeply appreciated. The Town Hall was packed. The Rev. Mr. Flag, with three soloists, salvation before we left the home, another large open-air meeting was held.

At Owen Sound five precious souls sought salvation. Mrs. Plain nobly held the reins while the Evangelist was absent. Mrs. Adjutant Crookend assisted at night.

Don't fail to come and see this on Sunday afternoon. Next week we shall give a forecast of that great Sunday night meeting—the last public service of the Congress.

COL. AND MRS. MAPP'S CLOSING MEETINGS

MAJOR MILLER AT THE SOO.

A Busy Week-end.

The visit of Major Miller to Sault Ste. Marie, for the memorial service, was much appreciated. Besides inspecting our new Citadel, which is almost ready for the opening, he conducted the weekly meetings.

A very good meeting was held in the Hotel Sault Ste. Marie on Saturday afternoon. At twelve o'clock Sunday for the young people the Major gave a very helpful address to the children. At the conclusion two came forward and accepted Christ. At night in the Orphanage he gave a very good address to the children. The officers and the children of the Orphanage were present.

At the afternoon service the Major was reinforced by Mrs. Hargrave and Sister Taylor from Calgary, who are visiting home before entering the Training College, Toronto. One soul plunged into the fountain.—Colin Campbell.

The officers are now looking forward with great anticipation to the 1913 Council.

On Sunday the 1913 Council, their annual meeting was spent. EDMONTON, CALGARY, and VICTORIA, were two pianoforte selections.

Captain White conducted the memorial service of Fredericks.

Assisted by several city ministers, Donald, Collar, and McLaughlin, Mrs. Captain White, sniffling, and the local forces gave excellent service.

Major and Mrs. Attwells conducted a night meeting in Fredericks on Sunday night. P. P.

God for a bountiful harvest and for His mercy was the theme of the meeting. At the close eight souls sought salvation.

In the absence of the Officers of the Division, the soldiers of the Legion, the Army, and the Air Force, the memorial service for the General, on Sunday night, the Rev. Mr. Walker of the Methodist Church spoke in our late Leader.

The memorial service for our General, at Bonavista, was a great success. Adj. Edwards, Envoy Hancock, for the Envoy for the W.M.F. Social Work; Major McMillivray, for the Immigration Department, Major Morris, then read a well-worded address, and paid a very kind personal tribute to the Colonels.

Soon after, the feelings of deep sorrow and pain, born of the blessed and tragic found in Canada, assailed all that in the spirit of true consecration to the Chief Secretaries' farewell meeting. The Rev. Mr. Walker, with the Colonel, was ready to follow. Every heart was touched with the love of God. The Rev. Mr. Walker's desire and incessant labours in the territory, and join in spirit and in faith that

THE COMING CONGRESS.

(Continued from page 8.)

General At the Congress through the courtesy of the authorities of the theatre the Chief Secretary farewell on the Saturday night, the moving pictures of the late General's funeral were shown. This is what a newspaper says concerning the pictures:

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

This gathering may be the rightest of all. She was with suppressed sorrow and Mrs. Mapp spoke her parting words, and her message reached every heart. It was quite evident that she had won a place of respect and deep affection in the hearts of those who had come under her ministrations.

The Colonel's Farewell Charge and Message.

It was concealed by all present that the Colonel eclipsed all present as he spoke of his personal mission, and his dedication, and by his speech was able to amuse himself and all that was dearest to him on the altar for service for God and the Army wherever God should send him. In his speech he made a speech to the people of the world, "If any man come after me let him take up his cross daily, and follow me." He made a speech to the people of the world, "If any man come after me let him take up his cross daily, and follow me." He made a speech to the people of the world, "If any man come after me let him take up his cross daily, and follow me." He made a speech to the people of the world, "If any man come after me let him take up his cross daily, and follow me."

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

Colonel and Mrs. Mapp with Brigadier and Mrs. Green and the Officers of the B. C. Division, Outside Divisional Headquarters at Vancouver. The Memorial Devotions for the General will also be noticed.

THE WAR CRY.

THE 30TH ANNUAL TERRITORIAL CONGRESS

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 16, TO MONDAY, OCT. 21

Conducted by

COMMISSIONER AND MRS. REES

ASSISTED BY COL. AND MRS. MAPP

COL. AND MRS. GASKIN, COL. BULLARD, LIEUT.-COLONELS PUGMIRE, REES, TURNER, AND CHANDLER, BRIGADIER BOND, TAYLOR, POTTER, BUNDIT, HANGRAVE, ADBY, RAWLING, MOREHEN, AND GREEN, AND HUNDREDS OF STAFF AND FIELD OFFICERS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE DOMINION AND NEWFOUNDLAND

The Massey Hall Meetings

CIVIC RECEPTION TO DELEGATES

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, AT 8 p.m.

SPECTACULAR MEMORIAL SERVICE

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, AT 3 p.m.

MISSIONARY EXPOSITION AND

FAREWELL OF CHIEF SECRETARY

AT 7 p.m.

THE WELCOME MEETING

Will be a great time. There will be the

80 New Cadets

Hundreds of Delegates

His Worship The Mayor

and all the City Bands

THE SPECIAL HOLINESS MEETING

in the Temple at 10.45 a.m. will be conducted by THE COMMISSIONER, assisted by The Chief Secretary

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE

In honour of The Army's Victorious Dead, will be held Sunday Afternoon

The most striking Memorial Service ever held in the Massey Hall. There will be Bands and Banners

A White-Robed Choir

Impressive decorations and electric lighting effects.
And an inspiring Pictorial Presentation of the Life
Work, Death, and Burial of the late General William Booth.

LANTERN PICTURE & CINEMATOGRAPH FILM

Will be used in the Pictorial presentation of the Life Work and Death of the late General. The pictures will comprise: 1. The Founder of The Salvation Army at various periods of his ministerial and Salvation Army career. 2. The General on his journeys. 3. The work of The General. 4. The General in death. This will show The General lying-in-state at Hadley Wood; lying-in-state in the Congress Hall; the coffin at various important places along the route from the International Headquarters, then an interesting cinematograph picture showing the procession passing a given place. This will be followed by a magnificient still picture of the son (The General's successor) conducting the funeral service at the graveside. The last picture of all will show the two graves of the late General and Mrs. Booth at Abney Park Cemetery.

LAST PUBLIC MEETING OF THE CONGRESS

SUNDAY NIGHT AT 7 O'CLOCK

This will be in the spirit of the Master's last words to His disciples: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

HOW THE GOSPEL IS PREACHED IN JAPAN

will be described by

Colonel Bullard LATE OF JAPAN

He will wear Japanese Costume.

PREACHING THE GOSPEL TO THE HINDOOS

will be presented by

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Grose

On a visit from Ceylon

IN ADDITION TO THE FOREGOING,

COLONEL & MRS. MAPP WILL FAREWELL

See further particulars on pages 8 and 16.

THE WAR CRY.

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

Twenty-ninth year.

BRITISH, U.S. & CANADIAN EDITIONS

TORONTO, OCTOBER 12, 1912.

DAVID H. REE

Price: Five cents

WHAT SHALL I DO WITH MY LIFE?

Spend it in preaching Christ and His crucifixion, and end triumphant like The General, or in getting dollars, and at last hear the Death Angel say: "Thou fool! this night thy soul shall be taken of thee."

Reader, the question is up to YOU for an answer.